THE OLD SOLDIERS AT THE GOVERNOR'S -Yesterday afternoon, the Soldiers of the War of 1812 having adjourned their State Convention, proceeded from their "Head Quarters" at the "Backeye House," under the escort of the "Stuben Guards" and the "State Fencibles," preceded by Goodman's Band, to the State Capitol. They were then conducted to the Governor's rooms, and introduced to Gov.
DENNISON by Col. Collies in a patriotic and appropriate speech. The Governor responded, welcoming the Old Soldiers, and paying a merited tribute to the patriotism of both Ohio and Kentucky in the War of 1812, The old vete range then withdrew.

GRAND ORFRANC CONCERN -- Madame VARIAL James, assisted by other eminent Artistes, will give her first Grand Operatic and Ballad Concert, at Armory Hall, this evening. The entertalment will conclude with the "Star Spangled Banner" by Madame James, in costume as the Goddess of Liberty, which has everywhere been received with unbounded applause. The success of Madame James has been so rapid and unparalelled, and her fame as a Vocalist so widely spread, that Armory Hall will doubtless be crowded to-night.

Washington, Jan. 8.—It is understood that prominent members of the Dipolmatic corps have advised the Government. In reference to the commercial interests of their respective countries, in view of the present political troubles, and what degree of protection may be expected, or something to that effect. The Government, however, has not vet replied.

Beturns are daily received at the proper offices from South Carolina postmasters, showing that business is progressing as heretofore, including the contractor's orders for pay and purchase of postage stamps. Salutes were fired here to day, in honor of the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans.

Setzetary Thompson to day resigned to the President his commission as hecretary of the Interior, on the ground that after the order to enforce Maj. Anderson was countermented, on the 3'st of December, there was a definct understanding that no troops should be ordered South, without the subject being considered and decided on the Cabinet. At the Cabinet meeting, on the 2d of January, the matter was again debated, but not determined. Notwithstanding these facts, the Secretary of War, without the knowledge of Secretary Thompson, sent 250 troops in the Star of the West to reinforce Anderson. Not learning this till this morning, he forthwich resigned. Rumors of attack of the Star of the West in the neighborhood of Charleston, and the cannonding of that city Major Anderson, are rife everywhere, creating intense excitement, though nobody can give any authority for the report.

An adjourned meeting of the Republican caucus is subject to the call of the Chairman. The resolutions of the border State committee will then be the subject for discussion. The report that orders have been issued by the British government to the consuls of the ports of the seceeding States to refuse certificates of clearance to English vessels is denied, and it is added that Mr. Buchanan's British counsel at Charleston, recognizes the defacts goverament, by granting such certificates to out going vessels of that nation.

As to whether the Congressmen from seceding States will remain here, after declaratory acts are passed, will depend upon the action of their several conventions.

Agents are here from the Southern States and continue to arrive, for the purchase of arms; the government has for the present refused to sell any to the States or private parties.

Augusta, Me., Jan. 9.—Ex-Governor Morrill was to-day elected to the U. S. Senate to fill the vacancy occa-sioned by the resignation of Mr. Haulin. The vote in Senate was unanimous. In the House the vote stood for Mr. Morrill 134; for G. T. Sheply 23. Nonrole, Jan. 8.—The schooner S. W. Luthweit, of Staten Island, has been selzed for violating the Virginia inspection laws. Larz Anderson of Cincinnati, brother of the Major, has just returned from Charleston. After the first interview with his brother, the surveilance was not continued, and he had free communication with him. The Major considers his position entirely secure, and is fairly supplied with provisions and other necessaries, except coal and wood, for military purposes, in case that extremity should be reached. He is in good spirits, and hopes that reason will operate upon the misguided people before

Message of Gov. Letcher of Virginia. Richmorn, Va. Jan. 7.—Gov. Letcher's message aliading to the condition of the country says all know and feel that danger is imminent and all true patriots are exerting themselves to save us from impending perils. He renews his proposition in his message for a convention of all the states and says, it is monstrous to see a government like ours destroyed merely because men cannot agree about a domestic institution. It becomes our state to be mindful of her own interests. Disruption is inevitable and if confederations are to be formed we must have the best guarantees before we can connect Virginia to either.

HOGS—Were in very light receipt, notwithstanding the confidence that was felt, that the advance would bring them in quite freely. $6.50 was the pravailing asking figure for good averages, and considerable sales were made last evening and this morning, at this figure. The majority of packers, however, stand off at thee prices, and are to day less inclined to pay them than heretofore, such offeriog not ever $6.25 for the best averages. There continues the a desire on the part of drovers to make contracts ahead, but this having been for some time—indeed, nearly the whole season—the care, it seems difficult to comprehend why it is, when the continued light receipts are considered.—Com. The Crisis.

been unparalelled for years by any former artists) has one so that I can form some estimate of the continuous commence with.

I have a great many reasons for publishing this paper as will more clearly appear to my readers as it progress es, and hance I shall offer neither excuse nor apology for what, at first view, to some, may be considered a sin es, and hence I shall offer neither excuse nor apology for what, at first view, to some, may be considered a singular determination.

"I ne CRISIS" will fully and thoroughly sift the great issues that hang like a cloud of night over our common country, and if our nationality, as it is, cannot be preserved whole and undivided, the still greater question will arise, more perplexing, as it is more gloomy, what are to be the conditions of our dissolution and disgrace. These are momentous questions, yet they are crowding hard upon us, and we have got to look them in the face, as unpalatable as they may be.

I have not much faithlin seeing those who have brought this fearful crists upon dur country, show patriotism and manifices enough to confess their errors, rectify their mistakes, and restore the country to the safe and healthy condition in which they found it, but I shall never less confidence in the mass of the people, nor distrust their right intentions until all hope is lost, and we are smitten down by the paricidal hand.

My consection of thirty years with politics and the press, gaves me some claims upon the people for at least a candid hearing.

If possible, let us save our country from the perils that aurround it, and ourselves from the stigma of incapacity and National wickedness. If it is too late, and we are aiready whiring to the dark abyse of discillation and chaos, in the name of humanity let us halt, and not ush headlong into civil commotions such as have never before reddened the earth with a brother's blood.

But a Prospectus is no place to argue great questions. "The CRESS" will do that at length, and without gloves. It will speak freely of men and measures, and call things by their right names. When a great country and the fate of a mighty people are statake, it is no time to retrest to our closets to pick words of delicate meaning, or to hunt phrases to stillies music on the ear of low. We are passing dangerous shoals in a frightful storm, and it is unmanly to sit in minic pantomime of a realgn wife and children from the fatal tagger tables to arrive before his eyes.

"THE CHAIS" will also be of a general character, and as varied in its subjects as the nature of its main purpose will admit. I shall especially devote a number of articles to the political and material interest of Kansas and Minnesota, where I have mostly resided since the spring of 1857, and in both of which I have taken no inactive of jest, and it both to what part.

To my friends in Ohio, I cones more appeal. I have often done so, but never in vain. In this terrible crisis in our affairs, will you not stand by me in this last appeal which, in the nature of things, I can never make again. God has spared my life to witness this mouraful and gloomy scene—te witness the distroying angel passing almost unbeeded over our fair and, crushing the hopes of millions in its dread flight.
